

AIHA RESULTS FRAMEWORK: HEALTHY COMMUNITIES

OVERALL GOAL: To create sustainable healthy communities.
OBJECTIVES	OUTCOME INDICATORS	METHODOLOGY (TIMEFRAME)	OUTPUT INDICATORS
Objective 1: Collection of scientifically valid baseline community assessment data.	1.1. % of problems identified and prioritized based upon review and acceptance of valid data with community input.	1.1. A community health assessment is initiated with the implementation of primary and secondary data sources to include an array of data collection tools: surveys, focus groups, etc.	# of data sources examined to obtain valid community needs assessment. # number of issues identified and prioritized with community input. # number of community meetings held to discuss assessment results.
Objective 2: Development and implementation of community interventions based upon needs assessment.	2.1. Number of PROJECTS implemented and endorsed by the community.	2.1. New Community based projects are implemented. 2.2. Healthy Communities support and become involved or create a network of healthy cities.	# number of projects implemented. # number of participants # of projects implemented and supported by on-going media involvement. # number of projects funded with municipal and other donor supported resources. # number of communities which endorsed the WHO principles of healthy cities.
Objective 3: Mobilization all sectors of the community.	3.1. Number of sectors engaged in the development of the healthy communities projects.	3.1. Seek written endorsement and financial commitments from business leaders, county council and mayor, health sector and NGO's.	Programs are fully funded and sustainability strategies are well defined to ensure long-term community involvement.
Objective 4: Community improvement evidenced through project monitoring.	4.1. % of programs implemented based upon community priorities and projects proposed.	4.1. Mobilize and track community changes.	# of programs with documented impact data based upon initial baseline assessment.
Objective 5: Increased community participation in improving the health of the community	5.1. % of community members participating in health education programs and community meetings.	5.1. Community awareness activities organized to ensure community involvement. Media plays a key role in promoting healthy communities projects.	# number of health and social policy changes as a result of community involvement and advocacy activities. # number of projects replicated in other communities.