

Slovak Association of Nurses.

Goal

Non-institutional education of associate health care staff and technicians.

Definition

Non-profit, non-government, independent civic association of associate health care staff.

Chamber of associate health care staff

Goal

To protect and develop the interests of associate health care staff.

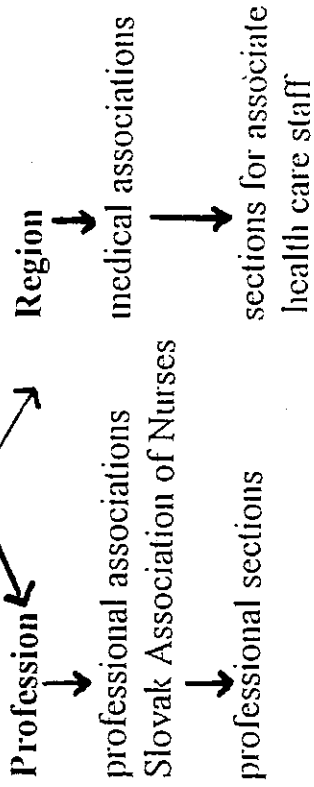

Definition

Voluntary, non-government, democratic organisation.

The S.A.N. and the C.A.H.C.S. includes the nurses with the bachelor degree {2 years of university}, the nurses without the bachelor degree, specialists, laboratory staff and physiotherapists.

The membership in both organisation is possible.

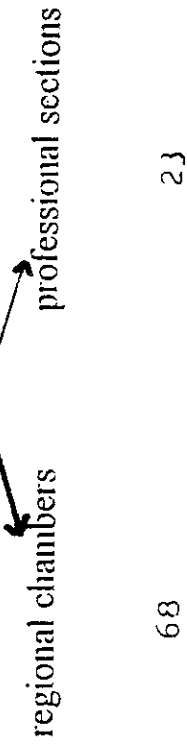

Slovak Medical Association

27

32

Chamber of Associate Health Care Staff

68

23

Slovak Association of Nurses

The main goal of S.A.N. is to create and to present proposals concerning ethics, professionalism and science in health care and put these ideas into practice the in health care system.

Chamber of Associate Health Care Staff

The main goals of C.A.H.C.S. are:

- to illicit commethn on the health care laws concerning the associate health care staff and their social, environmental and professional working conditions.
- to cooperate with the Ministry of Health Care of the Slovak Republic and take part in the process of job placement.
- to illicit comment on the education of health care staff.
- to illicit comment on the professional skills and ethical attitude of the members.

Slovak Association of Nurses

National Board

1. Chairman
2. Vice-chairman
3. Secretary of science
4. Treasurer
5. Controller
6. 2 members of board

Chamber of Associate Health Care Staff

National Board

1. President
2. Vice-president of nurses
3. Vice-president of technicians
4. Vice-president of physiotherapists

Slovak Association of Nurses

Membership

The membership is voluntary. To become a member of the S.A.N. the applicant has to submit the application form. The application fee is 20 Sk and the membership fee for the year 1998 is 20 Sk which allows the membership in two sections.

The expenses of S.A.N. are covered by membership fees and foundation.

Chamber of Associate Health Care Staff

Membership

The membership is voluntary. To become a member of C.A.H.C.S. the applicant has to submit the application form. The application fee is 400 Sk and annual membership fee is 200sk.

The expenses of C.A.H.C.S. are covered by membership fees and fundraising.

The salary of the secretary of C.A.H.C.S. is covered by the membership fees.

International activities of the S.A.N.

The S.A.N was the member of the I.C.N till 1993. In the present time S.A.N. starts to cooperate with the association of nurses in the Czech Republic.

International activities of the C.A.H.C.S.

The chamber

- is the member of I.C.N. from June 1997.
- is included in the LEMON - project
- cooperates with the german association of nurses D.B.F.K.
- is interesting in joining the European Association of Nurses.

Other activities of the S.A.N.

1. Journal – Revue of nursing and laboratory diagnostic procedures.
2. Organisation of conferences, workshops and lectures.
3. Award the activities of the members.
4. Award the scientific work of the members.
5. To cooperate with the official education institutions to prepare the postgraduate education program for the members of S.A.N.

Other activities of the C.A.H.C.S.

1. Journal – Slovak Health Care
2. The cooperation with:
the labor union
the Ministry of Health of the Slovak Republic
the Slovak National Board
3. Education of the members.
4. Juristic advices
5. The commitment of the laws concerning the working conditions of the members.